INDUSTRIAL COLLABORATIONS SIEMENS

MoU signing ceremony between NED University and Siemens marked a significant milestone in fostering innovation and skill development. Following the ceremony, the Siemens Innovation Center was officially inaugurated at NED University. This state-of-the-art facility is set to equip graduating engineers with cutting-edge expertise in Power Automation, Protection, SCADA, and Control Systems through advanced equipment and software.

This partnership represents the beginning of a continuous exchange between Siemens and NED University, aiming to elevate the center with professional training programs and other initiatives. Kudos to Siemens for this remarkable step toward empowering the next generation of engineers.
